(MIAMI) Chicettes jetting into Miami for an extended weekend in the sun can look forward to an extra dose of glam via The Sagamore Art Hotel. The Miami Beach haute spot is celebrating the installation of renowned photographer Elliott Erwitt's first-ever permanent Miami collection, guest curated by Kimberly Marrero, from 7:00—9:00 p.m. on May 3. The special tribute to the artist will showcase 39 black and white photographs selected from his new book Personal Best, including snapshots of style icons like Marilyn Monroe and Grace Kelly, among many others. The evening will also feature a book signing, as well as a selection of Mr. Erwitt's documentary films, including The Many Faces of Dustin Hoffman and Beauty Knows No Pain.
